

I have been on Wisconsin's no call list since it started. It works great and I enjoy the privacy and lack of calls from telemarketers. I do not want the banking industry to start annoying me. If I want their business I'll call them.